Dedication

Into the sunset . . . the voyage ends . . .
The days like rushing waves lapped hurrying feet
That now on native soil again are slowed, but surer.
We've explored strange ports . . . sailed restless seas . . .
Inspired by views of all before . . .
And now we watch the faded sails hauled down
While vivid memory sails the trip once more.
The log is complete . . . We must observe
And know another voyage cannot be the same.
Another dawn the ship will sail . . .
And steer the course . . . and see the ports
Where we have been.
Another sunset . . . another voyage ends.
To your school, the S. S. Southerner — and to this year, her 25th voyage — we dedicate this 1955-56 edition of your SOUTHERNER.

Dear Charlene,
It has been fun
in Bookkeeping this year. I hope to see you in the future - always a friend always

Dear Charlene,

are a real swell girl and have a nice personality.

Dear Char,

Colly, another school year gone and I really feel sorry that we have to leave this neat school even the homework (ha! ha!) Charlene, if you just stay as sweet and as cute and as innocent as you are you will really go places in this world, especially with the boys. Be good this summer and next year and don't be a getting married to soon.

The night is blue. The sea is calm.

The S. S. Southerner is at rest in the curling waters.

Her crew has successfully navigated ship with passengers through the changing waters of '55-'56. Now passengers have disembarked, taking treasures of knowledge and something more. Our faculty and administration, crew of the S. S. Southerner, have made students aware of the significance of citizenship.

They, as our teachers, have created within us a respect for them and the teaching profession. As benefactors of this rewarding voyage, we are grateful to the sincere, unselfish, and inspirational crew of the S. S. Southerner.

Dear Char:

I've enjoyed knowing you in the past years. I hope that I will always be a special friend of mine. Good luck in all you do and have fun in your future years. I hope to get to know you better.

Superintendents

Sound judgment and ability to inspire characterize the educational leadership of Salt Lake City schools.

Mr. Ralph V. Backman
Principal

Ship's Captain

Armed with the strongest weapon in education — faith in the abilities of youth — the S. S. Southerner's captain has led our ship through another successful voyage. Mr. Backman has given the student body a greater understanding of the principles of democracy and has worked to build within each individual a respect for South and an appreciation of the freedom enjoyed by Southerners.

Dr. Doug Williams

Vice Principal

Much of the credit for a rich cargo of successful Southern activities during this school year can go to the highly respected and admired Doug Williams. Dr. Williams' willingness to take time out from his many important duties to advise and help students has won deserved popularity and appreciation.

Mates

Mr. Kenneth Johnson

Treasurer

In his affable and gracious way, Mr. Johnson has efficiently carried out the many important and difficult tasks required of school treasurer.

Mr. Merrill Linford

Vice Principal

During his first year as assistant principal, Mr. Linford has given respect and understanding to students of South. In turn, students have given to him their support and their co-operation.

Lucille Monay

Counselor

Through twinkling eyes shine efficiency and devotion to South High. Lucille Monay's firm, yet understanding counselling has smoothed away problems and promoted harmony within our school.

Mr. Bruce Peterson

Counselor

In serving his first year as counselor at South, Mr. Peterson has displayed a warm friendliness and sympathetic understanding that have helped guide Southerners through the many problems of school life.

Dear Charles,

It's been a wonderful 3 years here at South. I hope you have enjoyed it as much as I have.

Lorin Hills

Historian

Throughout '55-'56, students have developed a real respect and admiration for the little, quiet, grinning historian whose valuable participation in South's student government and enviable scholastic achievements have proved his eagerness to uphold the principles of South High.

Leon Peterson

Second Vice President

Combining athletic and scholastic ability with quiet and gentlemanly leadership, Leon Peterson has proved a capable second vice president of the South student body.

Student Body Officers

Dorothy Pohlman

Secretary

The sweetness of her smile, the sincerity of her friendships, and her ambitions for South molded Dorothy into a gracious student body secretary and a charming representative of South High.

Mike Stewart

First Vice President

An irresistible personality, dynamic in his sincere friendliness, Mike has given his best as first vice president of the student body, and has smiled his way into the heart of every Southerner.

Bob Archibald

President

Leading the responsive and spirited Southerners of '55-'56, popular and energetic Bob Archibald has proved a capable Student Body President. Bob, known primarily for his friendliness, warmth of personality, and high ideals, has used these qualities to unite over two thousand students into an enthusiastic and loyal student body.

Left to Right, Row One: Penny Poulson, Joy Collier, Karen Hilstead, Kaye Managum, Janet Woodbury, Dorothy Pohlman, David Oliver, Kathleen Halverson, Mrs. Zarr, Dr. Doug Williams, Sandra Young, Bob Archibald. Passengers

The S. S. Southerner, with student passengers aboard, sails on waves of knowledge, pushed on by winds of inspiration and manned by a crew steering us toward maturity. This twenty-fifth passage is of poignant significance to seniors . . . strong in self confidence . . . striving to peer over the horizon and into a future rich with opportunities. Juniors . . . seasoned in the ways of the sea . . . participating in shiplife . . . looking forward to new ports. Sophomores . . . nearing the end of their first journey . . . broadened by privileges and freedoms accorded aboard ship . . . strengthened to meet the responsibilities of the future.

1st Class

A voyage too quickly ended . . . the final port of graduation reached . . . spirited seniors, equipped with knowledge and maturity, face a challenging new world of promise and adventure.

Janet Woodbury

Secretary

Behind those laughing eyes can be found an eager mind and a contagious will to serve. Janet's source of energy seemed inexhaustible.

Dave Oliver

President

A winning smile, a sparkling wit, and a glowing good will have made Dave a popular Senior Class President.

Sandra Young

Vice President

The sparkle in her eyes reveals the vibrant Sandra Young behind the capable officer. Her vitality has spurred her to serve South proudly as vice president of the Senior Class.

2nd Class

Much of the treasure within the S. S. Southerner can be credited to the quality of the second class passengers. They have reflected the true spirit of South in conduct and achievement.

Joy Collier
Vice President

Whether leading cheers or serving in student government, the sweetheart of the Junior Class displayed valuable treasures of ability and enthusiasm.

Dick Chidester
President

Combining humor with his natural leadership, Dick, as President of the Junior Class, has tickled the funny bone, then touched the heart of every Southerner.

Penny Poulson
Secretary

Vivacious and capable, Penny has served Southerners through a year of fun and progress as Secretary of the Junior Class.

Full Sail

Trade winds catch the unfurled sails of the S. S. Southerner. Seaports, alive with laughter, cheering, and song, melt into the past.

There, passengers traded time, talent, and effort for the precious treasures of experience that now fill the hold of the S. S. Southerner . . . a white spotlight framing our president as he introduces Friday's assembly . . . the charm and drama of "The Lute Song" . . . the thrill of blended voices in our a cappella choir . . . club members delving into rich fields of science, foreign language, or lively sports . . . the beauty and pageantry of "The Song of the Patriarch" . . . the romance of the girls' dance beneath blue foil stars . . . the "S" spelled out by the pep club on muddy gridiron or basketball court . . . We seek new worlds beyond strange horizons. Full Sail ahead!

Welcome Southerners

After booking passage we cast off for the open seas. Hello Day created an initial spirit of friendliness while election campaigns stimulated unity and democracy.

Fathers' and Daughters'

Proud fathers and excited daughters eagerly gathered in the auditorium for this special yearly event. A novel assembly-spiked with humor and talent, song and laughter — provided gay entertainment for everyone. Dancing in the gym proved a thrilling climax to the memorable evening of November 18, 1955.

An assembly, refreshments, and dancing added up to a very special evening for South's boys and their best dates, their moms.

Mothers' and Sons'

"We don't got none a' that m'am."

Firehouse Five Minus Three.

Assemblies

"... and we ah fa' dawn ..."

"Waltz of the Flowers."

B.Y.U. Symphony Orchestra.

Pep rallies, administration messages, special guests and performers, A Cappella, and our own talented students were welcomed eagerly each Friday morning on clever assemblies. The careful planning, inspiration, and contagious enthusiasm behind each one furnished lively entertainment and made these get-togethers a memorable part of high school life.

Song of the Patriarch

This beautifully staged Christmas program, presented the evenings of December seventh and eighth, featured colorful dances depicting various religious beliefs and rituals.

Dance Program

DIRECTORS:

Mr. Jack Vigos
 Mr. Ursel Allred
 Miss Myrth Harvey
 Mrs. Lela Smith
 Miss Lorna Tayler
 Mr. James T. Harwood
 Mrs. Virginia Wigginton
 Mrs. Helen Anderson
 Mrs. Leola J. Church
 Miss Iris Sleater
 Mrs. Helen Jerrell
 Mr. Farrell Spencer

Elaborate sets required hours of tedious preparation.

In each movement, unity, grace, and precision.

Girls' Dance

"I'd like you to meet . . . er . . . a . . ."

One at a time please . . .

Brief "floor" show.

Under myriads of blue and silver stars Southern girls and their favorite beaux danced to the music of Al Sedgley and his orchestra. The able direction of Dorothy Pohlman, Sandra Young and Diana Major turned the "Street of Dreams" of January twenty-first into an enchanting reality.

Under the stars . . .

Caught in the act.

"Lute Song"

Audiences felt the tenderness of oriental romance as "The Lute Song" came to life on the stage of South High School. Under the sensitive, yet dynamic direction of Mr. Allred, actors, musicians and dancers blended to make the artistry and pageantry of this production.

"Hurry . . . It starts in 10 minutes!"

Gushing fountains, bold streamers of gold and purple, and the great proscenium arch guarding the orchestra . . . all these gave dancers an atmosphere of splendor and triumph. A Roman Holiday! The R.O.T.C. and South again have reason to be proud of the annual Cadet Hop.

. . . And the band played on . . .

"... and then the traveling salesman said . . ."

"Allow me to introduce..."

Cadet Hop

"Think the rain'll ruin the rhubarb?"

I love a parade.

Paris was never like this !

"... stew, again ..."

... in some secluded rendezvous ...

Exchange visitors enjoyed a special concert by the A'Cappella Choir during their stay.

Lasting friendships were made.

Indian Exchange Games

Sharing fun with new-found friends and observing different way of life, Cubs learned the ideas and customs of our Indian neighbors. Joining in family life and social gatherings proved a broadening experience for the Brigham students also. The exchange program fulfilled its purpose of building better citizenship through understanding.

Find one unhappy face. I dare you.

A sample of South's famed cheering section

See, there's my name!

No class for a while now.

Scribe Days

Social Arts Dance

Welcoming exclamations sounded through the school as Scribe was passed out to an expectant student body. Packed with humor, sports, and talk on student affairs, the paper always made Scribe day a big success.

In a heavenly daze, senior girls and their dates glided through a paradise of cherubs and filmy clouds. In contrast, spirited demons lurked about the refreshments room. The Social Arts Dance of April 27th became an enchanting visit with "Sinner or Saint."

Long hours were spent decorating . . . but it was worth it.

Decorating for the dance are Social Arts Club officers: Carol Christopher-son, Carma Spencer, Linnea Johannsen, Billie Soffe, and Sophie Makris.

Excited shouting, merry laughter, and frightened screams were part of the excitement which filled the air on Lagoon Day. A tradition at South, it is one of the most popular events of the year. Whether shivering in the pool, going on rides, or eating cotton candy, Cubs enjoyed school at Lagoon.

Dear Charlene,
 It has been fun
 knowing you these past years. Like care of yourself this summer and stay your wonderful self. I'll always remember you as a very
 dear friend.
 a friend & Pal,
 Margie

Yearbook Day

After months of anticipation the great surprise is revealed. An original theme, "The Log of the S. S. Southerner" is the basis for the yearbook of 1956. Students eagerly search through the pages of their books and find recorded there the special events — so meaningful and important — that they will remember forever.

After the assembly, elated Cubs clogged the halls getting and giving autographs.

An opportunity for every student to say "Thanks" for school friendships.

Dear Charlene
 How's things
 now? Are you glad we're almost out of school? That's good.
 Seriously, though, I've really enjoyed knowing you and even if you do think I'm crazy, I've still like you. I always a real swell girl and I consider it a privilege to have known you.
 Lots of luck and best wishes to a very nice girl.

Charting the Course

The Southerner journeys on her voyage through present seas. The world awaits. We chart our course avoiding shoals and shipwreck, always advancing toward our goal. As the pilot ship tests and tries the waters so must we discover our way. In art, music, and drama we find the truth of beauty. In our modern log books . . . Southerner, Highlights, and Scribe . . . we record the moments of our voyage for today and for that time of recollection when we reach home port . . . the future.

Kathleen Halverson
Co-Editor

Kathleen has unselfishly devoted her time to the planning, organization, and completion of an original and satisfying edition of the Southerner. Her warm and friendly spirit combined with an active and creative mind to make her an inspiration to staff members throughout the year.

Ronald Larsen
Co-editor

Ron, an outstanding and gifted Cub, has shared a difficult and important job as yearbook co-editor. Always cheerful and hard-working, Ron has carried the major responsibility for photography and deserves much credit for the many unusual and artistic camera effects.

*Dear Charlene,
It's been real fun knowing you this year. I hope our friendship will continue through the years. Good luck.*

Orchestra

Programs and assemblies were made more beautiful as the orchestra presented melodies perfected through hours of patient rehearsals. South has appreciated the special talents of the orchestra and the expert direction of its gifted conductor, Mr. Spencer.

...meanwhile . . . back in the pit...

Two on the aisle.

South's success in the fields of debate, oratory, and extemporaneous speaking — in competition at invitational meets or at Weber, Regional and State speech meets — can be ascribed to the diligence and enthusiasm of participating students and their faculty sponsors, Miss Rohde and Mr. Remington.

Coaches: Miss Rohde and Mr. Remington

ORATORY AND EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEAKING — Left to Right, Row One: Pat Bean, Valerie Larsen. Row Two: Sheila Parr, Alton Har- sin, Diana Major, Pat Stevens.

Man the Deck

"Man the deck!" . . . "every man to his place!"

. . . "do your duty!" . . . "Fight, fight, fight!"

A well organized team struggles on the gridiron . . .

A basketball bounces on the rim, hesitates and slips through the basket . . . The crack of the bat resounds as it sends the ball flying into the outfield . . . At the explosion of a gun, racing feet pound on the cinder path . . .

Throngs of excited Cubs give the extra push needed to help South surge forward through the troubled waters of competition. The victory is ours! . . . It belongs to all of us . . . to South.

Bob Graves
Coach

"A" Football

Crowds of cheering Cubs in the stand . . . a huddle on the field a pass into the end zone and South's gridsters tally up another victory. The coaching of Bob Graves turned our football players into a spirited, hard-playing team. Through determined effort our powerful squad gained precious yards on the field and brought added prestige to South.

Baseball

The thud of a ball hurled into a well-padded glove was a familiar sound heralding the arrival of that good old American pastime, baseball. Our loyal Cubs demonstrated true team spirit and valiantly defended South in competition with other schools.

On South High — We stand behind you forever
 On South High — To greater heights and fame.
 Oh the Blue and White will ever wave on before us
 While we proclaim your praises to all.

Rah, Rah, Rah

Hail, South High — We stand behind you forever.
 Hail, South High — The school that we love best.
 To your colors we're true, while all our voices ring out
 Rising to the sky for our South High.

In Appreciation . . .

Time ebbs out . . .
And rolls its emptied hours back home.
A year is gone . . .
But time has left a broader beach
And here and there a memory protrudes
And glints in smooth-washed sand . . .
And time has left this book.

To all those who have helped us recall and record the precious moments of the past year: to the untiring Literary, Photography, Art and Layout Staffs; to the ever-trusting administration and faculty; to our patient sponsors, Mr. Nielsen, Mr. Harwood, Mrs. Jackson, and Mrs. Neilson; and to our publisher, Wheelwright Lithographing Company, we give grateful tribute and sincere thanks for their invaluable part in creating this most treasured memory . . . your Southerner.

KATHLEEN HALVERSON, Co-editor
RONALD LARSEN, Co-editor

In Memoriam . . .

. . . We can make our lives sublime,
And departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time. . . .

Dear Charlene,

This year has really been a lot of fun. I was sorry to have to leave 3rd Period Am. Probe. because we could have had so much fun. I hope that after this year is over I might get to see you. Best wishes for success & happiness in all you do.

a pal, Sharon Taylor

GREETINGS YE SOUTH HIGHS, YE SALT OF THE EARTH!

Here's an acid test for you.

- 1 — Question: Name Utah's Oldest Ford Dealer which is celebrating its FORTY YEAR WITH FORD Anniversary? Answer
- 2 — Question: What firm has made more V-8 cars than all other makes combined? Answer
- 3 — Question: Name America's finest and fastest SPORT CAR in the low priced field? Answer
- 4 — Question: (for coeds only) Whom would you choose? (a) The boy who knows not, but knows not that he knows not; (b) The one who knows not but knows that he knows not; (c) The one who knows but knows not that he knows; or, (4) The one who knows and knows that he knows? Answer

This boy also knows the best place to buy a new or used car is at Petty Motor, where there is a large selection to choose from, where prices are low and terms are easy. Utah's widest selection of used cars—$75 and up. We like young people. Come and see us for a sweet deal.

PORTRAIT OF A SCHOOL YEAR

Like a fine artist, the yearbook editor paints . . . but with words and pictures as well as brush and pen. He also organizes and edits and classifies. For this we provide tools — layout assistance, clinics and conferences, charts and forms — to reduce the work to an easy system, and leave more time for the creative planning that distinguishes Wheelwright yearbooks.
